| 1. We know how good this land can be,
 we've seen what it can grow
 when rain has fallen as it can and all the rivers flow. 2. But when the clouds refuse to break for days & months & years
 the land becomes a barren place
 and hope, it disappears. O hear our prayer,
 we know you care.
 Hear us today and always. | 3. O God, you fashion every hill,
 you flatten every plain.
 You must have heard the crying ground,
 come down and make it rain. O hear our prayer,
 we know you care.
 Hear us today and always. 4. Why don't you tear the sky apart
 - you know our desperate plight?
 You hear the cries, you see the tears,
 O come and set things right. |

*The words of the verses are in Common Metre.
 Many tunes will fit. 'Our God, our help in ages past'
 (TIS 47) works well.*
