

Climate solidarity: Talanoa with Climate activists from Tuvalu and Kiribati

A collaboration between Edmund Rice Center with Uniting Mission and Education (UME) and Rodger Page Congregation (Auburn Parish)
NSW & ACT Synod, Uniting Church in Australia

Saturday, Nov 09, 2024 (1:00–3:30pm)

Rodger Page Congregation

186 Parramatta Rd, Auburn NSW 2144

arrive around 12:30 for mingling and 1:00 start

YOU ARE ALL WELCOME to a talanoa event (forum, workshop) at which climate activists from Tuvalu and Kiribati will share their talanoa and invite engagement around the following matters:

- Struggles with the impacts of Climate change in their home(is)lands
- The capacities of indigenous / Pasifika folk to survive and to be resilient
- Opportunities for folk in the cluster of islands now known as Australia to be in solidarity with neighboring climate affected (is)lands

From Tuvalu

- Marion Fuasou (33, she/her), Project & Climate Change Officer at Tuvalu Climate Alliance Network (TuCAN)

and from Kiribati

- Miriam Moriati (21, she/her), President of Kiribati Rotaract Youth Club
- Rabwena Ieete (24, he/him), Climate change activist and volunteer at Tungaru Climate Alliance

No registration is needed, but it would be helpful if you let us know that you plan to attend – via email to Limoni Tupou (rimmon_tupou@yahoo.com).

Queries

Jione Havea

~~Mission~~ catalyst: Stewardship of the Earth

JioneH@nswact.uca.org.au

Rosaline Parker

Edmund Rice Center

rparker@edmundrice.org