A CELEBRATION OF THE 450TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE EDICT OF TORDA

ST STEPHEN'S UNITING CHURCH,
Macquarie Street, Sydney, by kind permission of the Revd Ken Day, Minister of St Stephen's

SUNDAY, 4TH FEBRUARY, AT 1.30 PM

a simple service for those who care for God and who would follow Jesus, and including the singing of MANY HYMNS !

For the first time in the intolerant and bloody era of the Reformations, on January 28th, 1568, a Christian ruler, King John II Sigismund in Transylvania, allowed people to worship according to Roman Catholic, Calvinist, Lutheran, and Unitarian ways.
with freedom to elect their ministers, and forbade the reviling of the religion of others and the removal of any minister on the grounds of their religious beliefs !

Not only in some violent parts of the world but in our own land and our own city, such tolerance perhaps is still needed.

led by the Revd John Bunyan with the assistance of others with also the launch of five books and a tract ! – all proceeds going to Christian care for refugees in Iraq and Jordan, or to the Cerebral Palsy Foundation here (the former Spastic Centre) as the buyer chooses
