

Christian Ethics Today:

*How Then Shall we Live?
Engaging Society with the Disarming Beauty and Timeless Truths of the Christian Faith*

Paradosis Conference

FRIDAY
18 MAY 2018

Melbourne School of Theology

Free copy of Paradosis with Super Earlybird registration

Keynote Talks:

“Does talking about theological ethics or moral theology vaporise Christian ethics?”

Prof Mark W. Elliott

School of Divinity, University of St Andrews, UK

“Ethics and Public Theology”

Mark Sneddon

Adjunct Professor of Monash Law School
Executive Director Institute for Civil Society

Further Guest Speakers:

Dr Brian Edgar

Professor of Theological Studies,
Asbury Theological Seminary USA

Dr Denise Cooper-Clarke

Adjunct Lecturer in Ethics at Ridley
College, voluntary researcher with Ethos

Rev Dr Gordon Preece

Priest-in-Charge, Yarraville Anglican Parish; Director, Ethos: EA Centre for Christianity & Society, Director, Uni. of Divinity Centre for Research in Religion &
Social Policy (RASP)

Prof Mathis Grossmann

Endocrinologist, Department of Medicine (Austin Health),
The University of Melbourne

Rev Dr Angelo Cettolin

Dean of Faculty and Senior Lecturer,
Eastern College Australia

Super Earlybird before 25 Jan: $80 pp / Concession $45 pp and a FREE copy of 'Paradosis' latest volume

Earlybird 26 Jan - 16 Mar: $80 pp / Concession $45 pp

Registration: Full price 17 Mar - 4 May: $120pp / Concession $75 pp

For more information and Registration visit mst.edu.au or call +61 3 9881 7800