

Recognise and Respond Appropriately to Domestic & Family Violence

Expression of Interest

DCJ & TAFE NSW Training for Religious & Community Leaders

Statement of Attainment - Recognise and Respond Appropriately to Domestic & Family Violence

Online Training - 4 half days

Dates: Wednesday 24th February & Thursday 25th February 8.30am-1.30pm

Wednesday 3rd March & Thursday 4 March 8.30am-1.30pm

Name:

Religion:

Cultural Background:

Language(s) other than English spoken:

Are you of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander origin? Yes No

Local Government Area you mostly do your work in:
(this training is ideal for leaders in regional areas)

Have you participated in any domestic and family violence related trainings/seminars/workshops, before? If so, please briefly specify the details?
(who delivered, when and what were the learnings)

Have you participated in the Department of Communities & Justice's half day seminar
"Resourcing Leaders to Help Troubled Families"

Yes, if yes which location did you attend

No

Please tell us about your experience in responding to domestic and family violence issues within your community? (Things to include are: How often people come to you seeking advice related to their family issues, including domestic and family violence; what are the common issues?; how did you assist their situation?)

Are you able to attend all the required class dates? Yes No

Are you able to complete the assessments in your own time following completion of the classes (this will require about 10 hours to complete)? Yes No

Please provide any other information you would like us to know (optional)

I understand if my expression of interest is successful, I will be sent an enrolment link to the TAFE NSW course. This expression of interest is not a guarantee of enrolment.

Thank you for your expression of interest.