A webinar hosted by the Australian Churches Refugee Taskforce (ACRT) to encourage individuals, churches and community groups to respond to issues of accessibility to higher education for refugees and asylum seekers, and offer practical support to students undertaking tertiary studies.

Hear from people involved and community groups making a difference and changing lives.

The webinar will highlight:

- Barriers to tertiary education for people seeking asylum, and refugees on temporary visas
- The way the university sector is addressing the issue across Australia through scholarships and support.
- Examples of ways to improve access to tertiary education and to offer practical support
