2. Special introduction to the issue of human trafficking in Asia by Rev. Elga Sarapung, Chair of the Asia Pacific Women of Faith Network, Director of the Institute for Interfaith Dialogue in Indonesia (INTERFIDEI), and Coordinator of Indonesia Interfaith Network
3. Guest Speaker: 'Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery', Laura Giassetti (35 mins) and Q&A (20 mins)

Laura Giassetti is the Remediation Services Manager and Program Manager for Domus 8.7, an agency of the Australian Catholic Antislavery Network (ACAN). Laura has worked in ethical sourcing and modern slavery risk and compliance management for several global retail and consumer service chains. With ACAN, Laura supports Catholic entities with a supplier engagement strategy using meaningful data to improve working conditions and manage Modern Slavery risks. Laura has experience in strategic integration of Sedex, social audits and worker voice programs in modern slavery risk management frameworks. Laura has practical experience in auditing and supplier engagement in Australia, Europe, South America, Africa and the Asia-Pacific region, most recently leading the ethical sourcing operational team of a large retail operation in Australia and engaging directly with workers in grievance investigation and remediation.
